

Jackie Cote is a Freedom Mentor, Speaker and RV Adventurist who helps hyper driven successful people who have money and success create the ultimate life of freedom and love.

Jackie is a Jersey girl at heart who is now living out her dream of freedom and adventure by traveling the country in an RV with her man and 2 pups meeting virtual friends and changing lives on her terms.

Why book Jackie and what an audience can learn:

“If you look up magic in the dictionary, I’m pretty sure there is a picture of Jackie! We’ve worked together for two years and the personal and professional growth I’ve achieved has been something I’ve always dreamed of. Don’t get me wrong - you have to put in the work, but she helps you. I wouldn’t be where I am today without her.”
~ Molly Blomquist

Jackie comes from thirty years in leadership management in the restaurant business helping people achieve next level success and freedom.

Jackie is on a mission to inspire as many as she can to live a life they love filled with their version of freedom and adventure.
